icity of events which transpire in o ne. Some three weeks since, Mr. Willis came here from Forest City, with an improvement on Wilkinson's. We had previously Emens'; afterward, Mr. McCom-bie's, an old settler, who, as you are perhaps aware, extracted the juice from corn and other grain, and man what some called good whiskey. Willis' machine seems o take with the men around here, and he might have so his State Right, but there was one thing only lacking, vir. ney. The women, as a general thing, around here, at ast, seem to have set their faces against these new fargled methods of doing up housework; believing, with a certain old lady, in another branch of domesticity, that the old-fashioned way was the best,

96 degrees in the shade, is almost unbe we have to do it. Nights are very pleasant and levely. The 4th of July was just such a day, and a grand picnic was held at Mr. McGee's Garden, notwithstanding. No speeches were made on the occasion, but everybody knew what the day was celebrated for, and all felt the heat as well as the celebration. Towards evening some Wathena loafers tried to raise a disturbance, but our City Marshal ejected the parties quicker than lightning, for which be deserves great praise. The celebration was continued in to the night. More than 1,000 people were together after dark set in. Every family in the town was there, young and old, big and little. O! is was a beautiful sight, to see so many home people assembled in a beautifully decorated garden by candle-light, and the goden reflection of the moon. The starry flag was hoisted in the garden, and as everybody had to pass under it, they remarked: O. what a nice flag that is ; why, that is our grand flag!" and it looked more beautiful than ever. In the back part of the garden there was a nice dancing floor erected, whereat three sets could be danced. The dancing was kept up un til 3 o'clock next morning. Everybody danced, and enjoyed themselves. It was amusing to see some of the older ens coming up and taking the old-fashio and with grace and splendor did our old portly Burgemas ter turn himself with his wife. Everybody was surprise at it, as it was supposed that he could not dance.

There never was a nicer time since Adam, as we had at our dance. There was no disturbance; so wheeping nor hollowing in fact, there never was a nicer, well-behaved crowd of people together as there was here; and yet we Charley Dockborn and Can. Richardson were three out of Dockhorn's wagon, while they were riding up towards Dockhorn's farm. They were bruised up co ably, but not fatally. The horses got frightened, and ran against a big log lying in the road.

Henry Clay, a colored man, who claims to be a son the old Statesman, Henry Clay, and also a brother of Cassins M. Clay, is still at large here. Our city authorities are afraid of him, or else they would put him where the dogs won't hite him. He is a very dangerous characternot too good to commit almost any crime. Could not the County Attorney take it in hand, and rid us of such a angerous individual, as we are not strong enough to de it. He has quite a lot of the worst kind of men under his control, to protect him in every unlawful act. His confederates are a mixture of white and black; and are ready to strike the blow, at his command. LUCY ANNA.

Valuable Belie.

About two years ago, we published an original letter of George Washington, which is now in the possession of Dr Shreve, of White Cloud. It was written at Philadelphia July 28th, 1794, while Washington was President. A relic fully as interesting and valuable is the property of W. D. Webb, Esq., of this place, in the shape of an autograpletter of Thomas Jefferson, written at Tonion, in France April 7th, 1787. It is written on a half sheet of letter p per, filling the two sides. The paper is of a brownish tinge, and unruled, like all writing paper of that day, but is of a much finer texture and quality than that usually met with-doubtless being of French manufacture. Th person to whom it was written was evidently also in France at the time, but as the original envelope does not accompa the name, Mr. Short, written at the foot of the first page, in Jefferson's hand, was the name of the person. But there is not the least doubt of the genuineness of the document The small, neat hand, and the signature, are unquestic bly Jefferson's, and the lines are written as straight as i the paper had been ruled. On the margin of the last pagwritten the following endorsement, in a different hand which, from the fold of the paper, we suppose was written by the person by whom it was received, in filing it:

Jefferson April 7.

The letter is interesting, and embraces various topics. Names and circumstances are mentioned which have long been embalmed in history. We give the letter verbatim:-

DEAR SIR—I received yesterday at Marseilles your favo of Mar. 25. I was just then setting out for this place, & therefore deferred answering you till my arrival here. now inclose you a letter for the Count de Montmorin, which with that to the King, be pleased to deliver to M. de Mont morin. Is the letter to the king scaled with the seal of OULON, Apr. 7, 1787

therefore deferred answering you till my arrival here. I now inclose you a letter for the Count de Montmorin, which, with that to the King, be pleased to deliver to M. de Montmorin, is the letter to the king scaled with the seal of Congress! If it is, nothing is necessary to be said on the subject. If it is not, it will be necessary to enter into this explanation: that some time ago I had occasion to deliver to C de Vergennes a letter from Congress to the king, which was not sealed with the seal of Congress that C. de Vergennes noticed it to me, & I wrote to Mr. Jay to inform him that hereafter the seal of Congress would be expected to such letters; but that I suppose my letter might not have get to hand when this one came away. The letter to the king is in answer to one he wrote Congress in July last on the birth of the princess. I have appointed in mine to M. de Montmorin for the delay of the answer, Congress not having assembled to do businoss till the beginning of February. General St. Clafr is their president. I inclose you an order on Mr. Grand for 1200 livres for the workman who makes Geal. Gates's medal.—I received a letter from Mr. Wythe as you supposed. it was dated the 13th Dec he does not mention Martin's arrival. he had received the Tagliaferro arms; but as I had sent them by two or three opportunities, it does not prove Martin'a arrival. Having taken 60 douches, without any senable benefit. I thought it useless to continue them, my wrist strengthens slowly; it is to time I look as the surear remedy, & that I believe will received at Marseilles encourages me in my researches en the subject of rice, & that I believe will return a look as the surear remedy, & that I believe will received at Marseilles cencourages me in my researches en the subject of rice, & that I shall meet with rice felids & the machines for cleaning it just beyond the Alps. unless they call me into the neighborhood of Turin I shall not go that far, having no object further eastwarf except the rice, hithertomy journey has been a c

THE STORM.—Thursday evening of last week, between : and 6 o'clock, after a very hot, suitry day, a heavy black blue cloud was seen rising in the north, which soon burst upon us in a terrific wind and rain storm. The rain was badly needed, but the wind could have been spared. It was the severest blow ever witnessed in this vicinity es were blownover, chimneys blown off, trees br ken down, and fences scattered. The storm came from due north. It played havoc in Holt County, Missouri ed the river about Lafayette, and came down the va ley of Mosquito Creek. Many ornamental and fruit tree were destroyed, and twigs and limbs were taken off and scattered in every direction. Several of the fine trees in the Court House Square were broken down. An immense mount of fruit has been destroyed, especially apple The young fruit was blown and shaken from the trees and underneath every apple tree bearing fruit, the ground was literally hidden from view by the applea. We sup pose that thousands of bushels have been destroyed in the ath of the storm. There was also considerable dan to standing grain, and grain in the shock. The corn was swept flat on the ground, but as it was strong and vigor ous, it is rapidly straightening itself up again. Some bai fell, but not enough to do any damage. At Atchison houses were blown down. A number of houses in this out of plumb. No loss of life or injury to persons, as far

The track of the storm was quite narrow. At St. Jo seph, there was no storm to speak of, neither was there on the western border of this County. But that night, we and, there was semething of a storm a few miles

Nor to ME POOLED AGAIN.—In the early and hard days of Troy, the hotel, (the need egg, as it were, of the presen City Hotel,) was kept by one Fitzmanrice—an overgrows greasy, rough specimen of humanity, and Pro-Slavery to the back-bone. He kept a pretty hard old hole, and a per son who stopped there once, would ride far and late to avoid doing so again. One day, a person stopped at the house, and after dinner, he asked the landlord for pen, ink and paper. They were brought, and the man, senting Elwood Pres Press, giving the hotel, the landlord, the victuals, the furniture, and all pertaining to the house, victuals, the numbers, and an pertaining to the nonze, such a "roaring up" as has seldom been seen. When the paper containing it appeared, the wrath of Fitzmaurice was terrible. The author was a stranger to him, but he vow-ed, if he ever found him out, to kill him. Not long afterwards, a very gentlemanly looking stranger came to Troy, to transact some business. After dinner at the botel, he requested writing materials, to do a little correspondence "Get out of my house, you d-d dirty dog!" exclaime Fitzmaurice. "Have you the impudence to ask me for pen and paper to play that same trick on me! Get out of this, right quick!" "Why," protested the stranger, "I made a civil request. It is necessary for me to write a letter, on important business." "No, you can't come that on me," replied Fitz., "You're a d-d Abolitionist, and want to write a letter abusing me and my house. Get out of here, I tell you!" And out he had to go.

THRESHING.-The earliest mode of threshing was with fail, in which the inexperienced operative was as likely to whack himself on the book of the head, as to pound the wheat. Improvements were so slow in coming into general use, that middle aged men of the present day atili remember when they flatled wheat. Treading out the grain with horses or oxen, was another primative mode of threshing, but not a very dainty one, for a reason that will geadily be understood. But these methods are very slow, and failing very laborious. Among the earlier ma-chines, was the endless chain, run by a single horse pow er, the animal trying to climb up an inclined plain, which continually kept sliding from under his feet. But the perfection of machines, thus far, is the Massillon Thresher f Russell & Co., of four to ten borse and steam power. A fault found with machinestropeers, was the fact that they cracked the grain, and damaged it for seed. But the Massillon machine has been so improved that while it does its work very rapidly and cleanly, it also does it without injury to the grain. A large number of these are new being old by Weeks & Macy, Western Distributing Agents, at

VINEGAR BITTERS Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked,
"What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Vinean Bitters:

Of Vinean Bitters:

Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gen-tle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Con-gestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Vis-ceral Org na, in Billous Diseases. They are easy of administration, prompt in their re-sults, safe and reliable in all forms of diseases,

If men will enjoy good health, let then ase VINEOAU BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form. No Person can take these Bitters ac cording to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by min eral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair. Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR British the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, capecially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missonri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannal, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries throughout our entire country during the Summer and Antumn, and remarkably so during sea sons of nuusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kid-neys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipeles, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Erup-tions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Disease these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTIES have shown their great carative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases. For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheu-matism, Goat, Billous, Remittent and Inter-mittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no

For this purpose use VINEGAR BITTERS.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of Dr. Walker's Vinegae Biffers are the best safeguard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers. Their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fancek. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.
